

CONTROVERSIAL TOPICS PERSUASIVE ESSAYS

Controversial issues make for great persuasive essay topics - and here are 15 issues and questions that you can use with your students as writing prompts.

The use of stem cells from aborted babies to cure diseases. This is a question that should come with a heavy dose of economics and economic policy. Essay any type. At the founding of the country, some states required voters to be as old as Mandatory implants of contraception against pregnancy for all both sexes close to the average onset of puberty until people obtain a license to have children. Need help choosing a topic? Magazine advertisements send unhealthy signals to young women. Gender choice during child adoption. Teens should live with their friends once a week. We all need to be childish. The humans are the leading cause of global climate change. Use the list of top topics below as a source of inspiration for your project. A few years ago, the U. Legalization of assisted suicide for people suffering from terminal illnesses. Extracurricular activities are important for your future. Is it fair that producers have more power than the band members? Controversial Persuasive Essay Topics Why students should be allowed to bring their pets to class How Gossip Girl ruined an entire generation Education is not related to success in any way Professional athletes are less intelligent than an average man War is necessary for the progress of human society How the educational system undermines our creativity Why men should stop shaving and women should stop coloring their hair Why religious groups should be banned from schools Academic writing is utterly boring and pointless Alaska does not belong and has never belonged to the USA Posted on. Scientists have the duty to translate their findings in normal language. Make TV more educational. Great topic for a persuasive essay. There should be one world currency. There are some examples to look at. Should police carry toy guns? The primary target of approaching a controversial subject is to stimulate the audience to discuss the issue. Prisons should use music and art to calm prisoners. Polygamy should be allowed. Continue Reading. What is the best way to relieve stress in sports? Every immigrant should learn to speak English. Place an order and pass your headache to our writer. To ensure the quality of the text, contact professional editing team and send the draft to them. Ayanna Pressley introduced an amendment to a bill on federal election reform that would have lowered the age for participation in Congressional and Presidential elections. A non-college education for higher income possibilities. Women make better managers than men. Interesting Persuasive Essay Topics Should recreational use of cannabis be legal? Should some musical groups, such as marching band and show choir, be considered a sport?